

Affiliated Faculty Appointments

Concept

The department appoints faculty members who are not currently employed by the university.

Rationale

The university encourages the development of a strong academic program and the recognition and appointment of faculty members who are not currently employed by the university. This is done to enhance the quality of the program and to provide a more diverse and experienced faculty.

Exclusions

Appointments do not include faculty members who are currently employed by the university, are on sabbatical, or are on leave. Appointments also do not include faculty members who are currently employed by another institution.

Appointments do not include faculty members who are currently employed by the university in a different department.

Appointments do not include faculty members who are currently employed by the university in a different position.

Criteria

Appointments are made based on the following criteria:

1. Academic excellence and research contributions.

2. Professional experience and leadership.

3. Ability to contribute to the department's goals and objectives.

4. Ability to work with the department's faculty and staff.

Process

The process for appointing faculty members involves the following steps:

1. Identification of a need for a faculty member.
2. Search for qualified candidates.
3. Review of resumes and letters of recommendation.
4. Interviewing candidates.
5. Selection of a candidate.
6. Offer of appointment.
7. Acceptance of appointment.
8. Appointment to the position.

The department will continue to seek qualified candidates for appointment.
