

The University of Scranton
Office of Financial Aid

The CSS Profile opened on October 1, 2024 and completion of the application is optional for The University of Scranton

The University of Scranton offers the CSS Profile Lite version to students

The CSS Profile Lite reduces the number of questions by half, making the application process quicker and easier for students and families

The CSS Profile Lite is beneficial for those who would like to receive financial aid information in late December

The University of Scranton's CSS Profile School Code is 000000.

Use this code to ensure your application is directed to the University

Sign in at cssprofile.org by selecting the appropriate academic year, 2025-2026

If you already have a College Board account, use that account to sign in

If you do not have an College Board account, create a new one

Parents should not create their

Utilize the “Sections” button to efficiently monitor your progress as you complete the application

The Student Status section plays a key role in determining which questions are relevant to you, including whether parent information is necessary

Make sure to provide accurate responses for both the student and parents/guardians

The CSS Profile does not need to be completed in one session, so you can save your progress and log back into the account to continue it when able to

Remember, the CSS Profile does NOT replace the FAFSA

You still need to complete the FAFSA to apply for federal aid such as:

- Federal Direct Loans

- Federal Pell Grants

- Work Study opportunities
